Turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord. Acts 3.19-20

Prayer of the Day

Lord of life,
by submitting to death, you conquered the grave;
by being lifted upon the cross, you draw all peoples to you;
by being raised from the dead,
you restore to humanity all that was lost through sin:
be with us in your risen power,
that in word and deed we may proclaim
the marvellous mystery of death and resurrection.
For all praise is yours, now and throughout eternity. Amen.

Acts 3: 12-20

¹² When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, 'You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? ¹³ The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. ¹⁴ But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, ¹⁵ and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. ¹⁶ And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you. ¹⁷ 'And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. ¹⁸ In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. ¹⁹ Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out, ²⁰ so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Messiah appointed for you, that is, Jesus,

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 4

¹ Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness:

when I was hard-pressed you set me free;
be gracious to me now and hear my prayer.

² Children of earth, how long will you turn my glory to my shame:

how long will you love what is worthless
and seek after lies?

³ Know that the Lord has shown me his wonderful kindness:

when I call to the Lord he will hear me.

For the Royal Family

We hold The Queen, the Royal Family and all who mourn in our prayers. Prince Philip died in Easter Week, the time when Christians give thanks for the firm and certain hope of resurrection to eternal life. It is to that hope that we commit him:

We give thanks to God for his long life, for his love of his country and the Commonwealth. We pray for Queen Elizabeth and every member of the Royal family, and all who mourn. We entrust Prince Philip to God's eternal love and mercy in our Risen Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

⁴ Tremble, and do no sin:

commune with your own heart upon your bed
and be still.

⁵ Offer the sacrifices that are right:

and put your trust in the Lord.

⁶ There are many who say 'Who will show us any good?:

the light of your countenance, O Lord,
has gone from us.'

⁷ Yet you have given my heart more gladness:

that they have when their corn, wine and oil increase.

⁸ In peace I will lie down and sleep:

for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety.

⁴ For there the Lord has commanded his blessing:

which is life for evermore.

1 John 2: 15-17; 3: 1-6

2 ¹⁵ Do not love the world or the things in the world. The love of the Father is not in those who love the world; ¹⁶ for all that is in the world—the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, the pride in riches—comes not from the Father but from the world. ¹⁷ And the world and its desire are passing away, but those who do the will of God live for ever. 3 ¹ See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ² Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. ³ And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure. ⁴ Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. ⁵ You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. ⁶ No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him.

Hear the word of the Lord,

thanks be to God.

Luke 24: 36b-48

³⁶ While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' ³⁷ They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. ³⁸ He said to them, 'Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts?' ³⁹ Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.' ⁴⁰ And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. ⁴¹ While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' ⁴² They gave him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³ and he took it and ate in their presence. ⁴⁴ Then he said to them, 'These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.' ⁴⁵ Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, ⁴⁶ and he said to them, 'Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷ and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ You are witnesses of these things.

This is the Gospel of the Lord,
praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

- Pray for little Michael Gordon who will be baptized at St John's on Saturday 1st May.
- Lew Hitchick, our Diocesan Lay Director, has asked me to pass on the following message from our National Spiritual Advisor for distribution throughout the parishes. "While Cursillo may have appeared to be in recess, the Secretariat has been meeting throughout 2020 and planning for 2021. With COVID restrictions easing, we are hopeful of holding an Ultreya and Cursillo later this year. Plans are being finalised for Cursillo Sunday, with details expected to be distributed later this month. So please, pray for the Secretariat and those involved in the planning of these events and ask your parish to remember Cursillo in their prayers."
