19th Sunday After Pentecost

Sentence

Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.

Mark 10: 15

Prayer of the Day

O God,
your Son has taught us that we must receive your sovereign rule like a little child:
help us to turn to you in faith and simplicity of heart,
so that we may receive your blessing
and enter the kingdom your Son has promised;
through the same Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord.
Amen.

Job 1: 1; 2: 1-10

1¹ There was once a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil. 2¹ One day the heavenly beings came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the Lord. 2 The Lord said to Satan, 'Where have you come from?' Satan answered the Lord, 'From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it.' 3 The Lord said to Satan, 'Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man who fears God and turns away from evil. He still persists in his integrity, although you incited me against him, to destroy him for no reason.' 4 Then Satan answered the Lord, 'Skin for skin! All that people have they will give to save their lives.' 5 But stretch out your hand now and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse you to your face.' 6 The Lord said to Satan, 'Very well, he is in your power; only spare his life.' 7 So Satan went out from the presence of the Lord, and inflicted loathsome sores on Job from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. 8 Job took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and sat among the ashes. 9 Then his wife said to him, 'Do you still persist in your integrity? Curse God, and die.' 10 But he said to her, 'You speak as any foolish woman would speak. Shall we receive the good at the hand of God, and not receive the bad?' In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Hear the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 26

1 Give judgement for me, O Lord,
for I have walked in my integrity:

I have trusted in the Lord and not wavered.

2 Put me to the test, O Lord, and prove me:

try my mind and my heart.

3 For your steadfast love has been ever before my eyes:

and I have walked in your truth.

4 I have not sat with deceivers:

nor consorted with the hypocrites;

5 I hate the assembly of the wicked:

I will not sit with the ungodly.

6 I wash my hands in innocence, O Lord:

that I may go about your altar,

7 And lift up the voice of thanksgiving:

to tell of all your marvellous works.

8 Lord, I love the house of your habitation:

and the place where your glory dwells.

Mrs. Jones got a little too used to watching online worship from home.

Prayer for those who are struggling – prepared by Rev Natalie Quince

Loving Father, we bring before you our struggles knowing that you are a God who understands all our weaknesses.

We thank you that you took on our humanity; that you have endured our temptations; that you have experienced our pain of loss and confusion; that you understand the frailty of our human bodies; that you know the challenges we struggle with in obeying your will, in loving, serving and forgiving others and in being able to live lives that glorify you.

Please remind us loving Father that you know each one of us - that you know the hairs on our heads. Remind us that you care for each one of us in our personal trials and struggles. Please give us your peace and the assurance of your presence and constant protection as we live in the middle of our struggles. Please give us strength, courage and hope in your promises, so we can persevere through our struggles and look towards a redeemed future.

Thank you that in all our labours Jesus intercedes for us. Help us to live with the confidence that when we trust in him, he covers all our failures, and in the fullness of your plans and purposes, we are healed and brought to glory.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen

⁹ Do not sweep me away with sinners:

nor my life with those that thirst for blood,

¹⁰ In whose hand is abomination:

and their right hand is full of bribes.

¹¹ As for me, I walk in my integrity:

O ransom me and be favourable toward me.

¹² My foot stands on an even path:

I will bless the Lord in the great congregation.

Hebrews 1: 1-4; 2: 5-12

¹ Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets,

² but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds.

³ He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high,

⁴ having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. ²⁵ Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels.

⁶ But someone has testified somewhere,

'What are human beings that you are mindful of them,
or mortals, that you care for them?

⁷ You have made them for a little while lower than the angels;
you have crowned them with glory and honour,

⁸ subjecting all things under their feet.' Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control.

As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them,

⁹ but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honour because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

¹⁰ It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

¹¹ For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters,

¹² saying,

'I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters,
in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.'

Hear the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Mark 10: 13 -16

'¹³ People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. ¹⁴ But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. ¹⁵ Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.' ¹⁶ And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

This is the Gospel of the Lord,

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

- Remember to pray for each other. Many people are struggling with loneliness during this lockdown. Supporting each other with prayer and a phone call can make all the difference to someone.
- Parish Council is still hoping to have some sort of Mini Fete with the usual stalls of Plants, Craft, Cakes, Morning Tea and BBQ. Date to be advised once we know more about the end of lockdown. If you want to start potting plants or preparing craft items please do! Allison and Jan are looking after the plants and Lynne is looking after craft.
- If you need any sort of help or support during this lockdown, please feel free to contact Carl 0408 968 202 or Jennie 0409 467 530. We are delighted to hear how many parishioners are taking the time to make encouraging phone calls. If we all make even one phone call a day, we hopefully can keep in touch with everyone in our church family.

Congratulations to Paul and Fiona who celebrated 7 years of marriage this week
